

ppl should not be approved it would almost certainly be the finishing blow to amateur radio and emergency communications as proven many times since and during 9-11 as a group we are still the most effective and reliable emergency communications group available locally and nationwide this kind of noise interference would render us and our services useless sincerly Raymond
M.Rothstein